What this program offers:

All Roles are played by enrolled students!

This program is designed to offer a fun, educational environment to students aged 13-18 (age as of start date of program) regardless of any previous theatrical experience.

The program is led by experienced teachers in the industry who also possess a certified police background check as well as First Aid and CPR training.

Students will be trained through workshops and rehearsals in vocal technique, acting, choreography, theatrical terms and theory.

Our focus is to build technical abilities along with life skills such as self confidence, time management, working as a team etc., with an outcome base of a public performance that this group can be very proud of.
